

James F. Duffy

Registered Architect • Professional Engineer

“Execution Expertise for Your Complex Project”

Objective

Provide architectural, engineering, and project management services which are perceived by Clients to add significant value in the delivery of capital construction projects.

- Promote teamwork, technical excellence, and a commitment to Client service
- Deliver recognized expertise to Client project teams
- Focus project planning and execution strategies to achieve Client goals

Background

A proven track record of performance providing services as an Architect, Engineer, and Project Manager.

- 25+ years in the construction industry
- Specializing in projects for chemical, industrial, and life science clients
- Experience with a broad range of project types with demanding technical requirements
- Provide process architectural design for GMP facilities with process team members
- Provide direct supervision of architectural activities from programming to detailed design
- Provide civil and structural engineering and design services
- Organize and lead multi-discipline project execution teams
- Participate in business planning and development activities, including development of sales strategy, proposals, and client presentations
- Project Manager responsible for project performance including scope, schedule, budget, and financial metrics

Additional Information

More information regarding qualifications and experience is available online at www.jamesfduffy.com

Other Links

Project List- www.jamesfduffy.com/projectlist.htm

Work History- www.jamesfduffy.com/workhistory.htm

Architecture • Engineering • Project Management

118 Stratford Avenue Westmont, New Jersey 08108

tel: 856-304-1577 e-mail: jim@jamesfduffy.com internet: www.jamesfduffy.com